

Territorial Topics

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

The interior of the deaf and dumb asylum is almost completed and the building is one of the finest in Santa Fe.

On the 25th of this month the Cavalry band will give another dance to raise funds for the purchase of new music.

The boys and girls are enjoying ice skating as the ice on the ponds adjacent to the city is four or five inches thick. All the ponds were covered with skaters yesterday.

C. E. Keeler, George Gibson and I. Saynard, stockmen from Cripple Creek, Colo., arrived in Santa Fe with a herd of horses which they are trying to dispose of in the city.

Owing to the illness of W. M. Berger, editor of the Capital, there was no issue of that paper on Saturday last. Mr. Berger has gone to Denver to have an operation performed.

Charles J. Parsons, clerk in the post-office, received the welcome tidings yesterday morning that his wife on Saturday evening at 11:30 o'clock gave birth to a girl. Mrs. Parsons is with her parents in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Word has been received here of the death at Dulles, Pa., on Sunday, November 23, of Eric Lankard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Lankard, of typhoid pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Lankard are well known in this city, having made their home in Santa Fe for five years. For a year Mr. Lankard was principal of the city schools, and later engaged in the insurance business. His daughter will be remembered as a little girl, and the sympathy of many friends here will go out to the parents in their affliction.

Herman Quante, of this city, a fancy painter by trade, died yesterday afternoon of heart disease. He came here in 1884 and had charge of the painting of the old capital building, which was burned in 1892, and has resided here ever since. He was a man of kind disposition and well liked. He was a native of Germany, but came to this country in early manhood. He leaves a wife and several grown daughters. The funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

DEMING.

From the Headlight.

Mrs. Frank Ward left for her home in Missouri after a pleasant month's visit at the Spruce street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nordhaus.

Clement & Givens' office at their lumber yard on Gold avenue, was broken into last Saturday night. Nothing of any great value was taken, however, the burglars confining their wares to paint brushes and some other articles of less value.

L. B. Stone, senior member of the real estate firm of Stone, Smith & Rogers, of this city, left for a week or ten days' trip up the Rock Island, where he spent Thanksgiving and other days with some old time friends.

Deputy Collector W. R. Fall, of Columbus, was in town for the fore part of the week attending to the entry and collection on 400 head of cattle that were imported from Mexico and brought here for shipment. The duties on these cattle amounted to a very neat little sum, being $3.75 per head.

HILLSBORO.

From the Advocate.

The Porter mill is grinding out a 300-ton run of ore from the Ready Pay mines.

Aloys Preissner expects to leave in a few days for Mexico to be gone at least six months.

Mrs. B. L. McKinney and her mother left for Tucson, Ariz., to be gone a month or so. Mr. McKinney accompanied them as far as Nutt.

E. H. Bickford, manager of the Lake Valley Mines company, and A. W. Gifford, of El Paso, and secretary of the International Miners' association, spent two or three days here. They were here for the purpose of looking into various mining interests in this vicinity.

Work at the Mamie Richmond mine is delayed somewhat while awaiting tools and lumber. The shaft will be re timbered from the 300-foot level down as far as possible. A large tank will be placed on the hill above the shaft house into which the water will be pumped from the shaft to be utilized. Mrs. Pearson informs us that by the first of February there will be fifty men at work. The road from Warm Springs gulch to the mine has been repaired and is now in excellent condition.

PORTALES.

From the Herald.

William Franklin was kicked by a horse and was thought to be seriously hurt. Dr. Pearce was called and after a close diagnosis decided that his injuries were not necessarily fatal. At present he is getting along very nicely.

While returning home at an early hour last Saturday morning, W. S. Shaw was thrown violently from his horse and received what was at first thought to be serious internal injuries. He was found in an unconscious condition by Deputy Sheriff Stoldt and brought to town where he received medical attention, and it is now thought that nothing serious will grow out of the fall.

The examining trial of L. C. Freeman, charged with killing William Paria, was begun before Justice of the Peace Benson last Friday and continued through the greater part of the day Saturday. The court, after hearing the testimony, held the defendant to answer at the next term of the district court and fixed his bond at $1,000. Attorney H. B. Baker, of this place, appeared for the defense.

Claude Crosby left the city very unexpectedly recently and, to the surprise of his many friends, returned with a bride. He was married at Alamo, Oklahoma, to Miss Pearl Addington, of that place. Claude Crosby is well known here in Portales, where he has numerous friends who wish him a long, happy and prosperous life. The bride is a sister of Joe Addington, of this place, and has endeavored herself to those with whom she has become acquainted.

LAS VEGAS.

From the Record.

The report of the public library for the month of November is as follows: Books loaned, 454; attendance, 959; card holders, 799.

Ike Bacharach and wife, of this city, will sail next Saturday from New York for Hamburg, on the ocean liner Pennsylvania.

Maria, the little daughter of Cleofes Romero, was operated on for tonsillitis. The operation was very successful and the little girl was quite cheerful today. J. A. Baker came in from the Tecote country and went down to Ribera. He reports work progressing fast on the foundation for the mill, also that the machinery has been ordered.

A. M. Hollenbeck, a merchant of Maxwell city, was in the city. Some one rifle, his valise the night before and he came here in search of the thief, but discovered on his arrival that he was on the wrong trail, so he returned home.

H. C. McDonald and wife, G. E. Sutherland and C. H. McDonald, who latter being an artist, are making their way overland from Colorado Springs to Los Angeles. They spent Sunday here and continued on their way today. Mr. McDonald is gathering material on the way to be used later in landscape painting.

From the Optic.

Max Nordhaus went down to Albuquerque yesterday. On Tuesday he will leave for New York, where he will join Mrs. Charles Hild and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bacharach, the entire party then leaving for Europe.

It is estimated that fully 150 parties went skating out to the springs yesterday. The ice is reported good, though a little soft.

Lynwood, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Epperson, for whom one of the electric street cars has been named, is reported very sick.

P. F. Nolan bought three cars at alfalfa at Bernalillo, which he pronounces very fine. In that part of the Rio Grande valley, the alfalfa crop was large and excellent.

Sam Landis has added five fan-tail pigeons to the remarkable collection he already had. If he can but succeed in crossing them in time, he may be able to raise enough pigeons for the gun club's Christmas shoot.

ROSWELL.

From the Register.

N. E. Stevens, general agent in New Mexico for the Montezuma Savings, Loan & Building association, has been here this week from Albuquerque.

Jessie, the 15-year-old daughter of L. H. Hyde, living about twelve miles northeast of town, died and was buried in the cemetery here.

Frank Anderson, manager of J. J. Hagerman's big ranch of 240,000 acres east of the Pecos river, was in town one or two days on business.

J. L. Wilson raised 8,000 pounds of Irish potatoes on one acre this season. He then planted some of the new potatoes and is now digging the second crop. How is that for "intensive farming?"

Tom Bell, of Hillsboro, Tex., father of Mrs. J. R. Warren, who was sheriff of that county for twelve years, has moved here to live. He started with a bunch of good Durham milk cows, but the inspector at Fort Worth declined to allow them to pass on account of the quarantine.

The Roswell club is considering a proposition to change its quarters and will have several proposals from parties who are going to build soon, including Barnett & James, who submitted their proposal at a meeting held Friday night.

Mrs. O. E. Cockrell, daughter and two sons, and Miss Minnie Hardin, of Owensboro, Ky., arrived here and registered at the Sheldon. Mrs. Cockrell is a sister-in-law of Capt. Thomas Cruise, who owns real estate here and who, with his wife, is expected here soon on a visit.

Mrs. Harry Walters, who suffered a stroke of paralysis over a year ago, and whose recovery has not been as rapid as her friends have wished, left for Battle Creek, Mich., where she will enter a sanitarium for treatment. Mrs. Walters will remain there about five months if she continues to improve under the treatment.

At last Thursday evening's meeting of the Retail Clerks' union seventeen employees of Joyce, Pruitt & Co. were admitted to membership, making the total roll fifty-three. A permanent organization was affected, as follows: Grand vice president, F. J. McConnell; president, Harry Carmack; first vice president, W. Shepherd; second vice president, Otis Jones; treasurer, Cy Davidson; financial secretary, W. A. Bryan; recording secretary, M. Schloss; guide, A. Blackwell; guardian, Walter Gill.

Wednesday morning S. E. Patton, the contractor was injured by being thrown from a wagon. Mr. Patton, with the driver, was just coming out of the Pecos Valley Lumber company's yard on the small delivery wagon of the firm, when the hub struck the gate post and the horse lunged, throwing Mr. Patton to the ground, and before the horse could be controlled, the rear wheel had run over Mr. Patton's back. The injured man was taken to his home at the new opera house where it was announced that the injury was slight. The wagon, fortunately, was only partially loaded.

WHITE OAKS.

From the Eagle.

George E. Sligh, secretary and treasurer of the Free Gold Mining & Milling company, was here on business.

Connections have this week been made between the old and the new shafts at the North Homestead. As much working force as the ore conditions warrant may now be put on. A mill run will be made soon.

Rev. W. J. Wright, of Pagosa Springs, Colo., has been assigned to this Baptist church for the coming year, beginning with the first Sunday in December, at which time he will preach morning and evening at the Baptist church. Rev. Wright is spoken of very favorably by those who are acquainted with his ability as a preacher.

Charles Elley Hall, general staff correspondent of Leslie's Weekly, has spent the week in White Oaks. He was here for the purpose of collecting data for the first of a series of articles he is to write for Leslie's Weekly on the "New Southwest." From what we have learned of his plans, the article on the White Oaks country will certainly result in great good to us.

SAN MARCIAL.

From the Bee.

The two houses owned by Mrs. Shaw have passed into the hands of J. E. Nichols.

Mrs. L. M. Eshom, of Topeka, sister of Mrs. T. H. Price, arrived here from Topeka to spend a month with Mrs. Price.

The bazaar held by the ladies of the Catholic church proved a success in every way. The voting contests were as follows: The silver set for the most popular young lady was voted as first prize to Miss Lina Hockett, ring as second prize to Miss Zella Holloway. The doll, for the most popular little girl, was voted as first prize to Miss Anna Hockett, the necklace as second prize to Miss Alice Greenwood. The silver cup for the most popular baby was voted as first prize to Baby Bixler, the baby pillow as second prize to Baby Vencil.

SOCORRO.

From the Chieftain.

Col. E. W. Eaton had quite a severe attack of illness but is now improving. Mrs. Charlotte Cortes left for Douglas, Ariz., where she has important business interests.

Frank Alfred, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Chamblon, was christened at the church of San Miguel.

Attorney James G. Fitch suffered an attack of inflammation of the eyes the first of the week, but is now improving quite rapidly.

The teacher's examination was in progress at the high school building. There were several applicants for teacher's certificates.

S. T. Reynolds left for a visit with relatives and friends in New York city. J. Leonard Knapp accompanied him as far as Albuquerque.

Hon. Daniel H. McMillan has leased the Nestor Eaton residence property on McCutcheon avenue and he and family are now at home there. It is pleasant to note that Judge McMillan and family have become permanent residents of Socorro.

The pie supper given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church to raise funds for a Christmas tree for the children of the Presbyterian Sunday school was a pronounced success as far as the quality of the supper and the patronage were concerned. The financial results must have been very satisfactory.

Charles T. Lincoln, of Boston, Mass., a brother of Prof. F. C. Lincoln, of the School of Mines, will arrive in Socorro in a few days to take charge of the work in assaying and chemical determination. Mr. Lincoln took a degree in chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is now chemist for the Bell Telephone company.

District Clerk John E. Griffith has just established an office at Lincoln and appointed E. W. Hulbert as his deputy at that place. Mr. Griffith now has a deputy in each county in the district. This will greatly expedite business, as all papers and records will thus be kept at the point where needed.

FARMINGTON.

From the Hustler.

A poker game with $700 table stakes was in progress Saturday afternoon. Of course the sucker won and the gambler lost.

Government Guager Rankin visited the distillery last week, guaging out some 500 gallons of apple brandy. Mr. Rankin was also recently elected county surveyor for Bernalillo county.

The large commodious warehouse of the Graden Mercantile company, in the rear of his store, was destroyed by fire; loss about $10,000, fully covered by insurance.

John Hanna had the misfortune to kill one of his wheel horses, while descending the grade at the mouth of the La Plata, with a load of apples for Durango.

Larkin, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hildebrand, died of dread pneumonia, and was buried at Aztec. The parents and family have the sincere sympathy of the community.

LAS CRUCES.

From the Progress.

Mr. Beasley, of Soledad canyon, has reached water in his new well at the south end of Organ mountains; depth, 447 feet. Will Mandell is installing his pump and engine for him.

Superintendent Oliver, of the Indian school, was down from the Duke city to take care of the Indian boys and to help the rest of the Albuquerque contingent swell the breeze with vociferous exclamations of "Go after 'em, Johnson."

Harry P. Ames came up from Chihuahua, Mexico, to visit relatives and friends for a few days. Mr. Ames graduated from the stenography department of the college two years ago and ever since then has been in the employ of the Banco Minero at Chihuahua.

Oh, the depravity of human nature! Just as a Las Cruces man has been successful in interesting eastern capital in a railroad through Las Cruces, and the Mesilla Valley Chamber of Commerce has made a report that very largely decided the capitalists to build the road, just now we find that every section in southwestern New Mexico is claiming the road. Even El Paso says nobody would be so presumptuous as to build a road through this section and not call at the Pass city on the way. Go ahead, gentlemen, but when you want to get authentic information just drop around to Las Cruces.

CALLUP.

From the Republican.

J. B. Moore, of Cottonwood Pass, was in Gallup this week.

An electric meter has been placed in W. A. Smith's residence.

John Miller and B. Sylvester from the Zuni country spent a couple days here this week.

One of the dynamos at the electric light plant went on a strike for two nights this week.

Miss Minnie Wilson was called to Canada this week on account of the serious illness of her father.

J. J. Chittenden came in from Canaan this week on his way home, Farmington. He received a telegram here that one of his children was quite ill.

A. F. Stone, who is charged with embezzlement of the funds of the Knights of Pythias lodge, is in jail, in default of $500 bonds for his appearance before the next grand jury.

John C. Hubbard, of Farmington, spent a couple of days here this week. He reports Farmington quite lively, with excellent prospects of becoming real lively within the next few months.

Jack Stewart, who has been absent from Gallup for the past two months, returned to the city metropolis yesterday. He visited several towns in Arizona and Old Mexico while away. He says Gallup is good enough for him.

FARMINGTON.

From the Times.

Walter Stevens, one of the pioneers of Fruitland, was in town on business. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hildebrand died of pneumonia and was buried at Aztec.

Mrs. Retta Allen was taken sick and her room in the public school dismissed for the rest of the week.

Work was commenced on the walls of the new city hall, and they are going skyward rapidly. We will soon have a place where we can hold a public meeting in comfort.

Severe freezing for this section occurred here Tuesday and Wednesday nights, but it did not stop our apple freighters who kept on loading and leaving for Durango.

LAS VEGAS.

From the Optic.

Work on the electric street car line seems to have been at a standstill for the last few days.

The organization of the Bnia Brith lodge will take place at the synagogue.

A letter received from Rev. George Selby says they were nicely received in Tucson and are pleasantly located in an elegant home. They are much pleased, and Mrs. Selby's health is greatly improving.

Charles T. Lincoln, the plumber, left for Watrous, accompanied by Jimmy Hume, who will assist him in his plumbing contract on the Pond sanitarium.

Gross, Kelly & Co., of this city, have leased the entire timber privileges of the Mora grant from both the Butler estate and the T. B. Catron claim. Richard Dunn has been put in charge; and the ties, stringers, piling, bridges and buildings timbers have been contracted for.

The wedding of Miss Mamie Redman to Harvey Hewett occurred at noon today at the home of President Hewett. The young man is foreman of the Kin Kade ranch on the Pecos. The young lady arrived yesterday from her home in Bedford, Iowa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Norman Skinner.

Mrs. E. D. Webb and children, of Los Angeles, who had been spending a couple of days in Albuquerque visiting friends, reached this city yesterday. They will spend a few days at the Las Vegas hot springs and then continue

THE CLEANING AND DYEING
CURTAINS

CATARRE

It's the Best Dyeing and Cleaning
Machine
Ever Invented

COLD IN HEAD

their journey east to Mrs. Webb's old home at Argentine, Kan., where she will enjoy the scenes of her childhood.

From the Record.

Mrs. Frank Long has entered the employ of E. G. Murphy during the holidays.

Mrs. Boardman and daughter, Clara, left today for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

I. Alexander, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, is reported much better today.

Work of hauling in the stone which is to be used in the erection of a wall around the school house, in precinct 26, was begun this morning. Red sand stone will be used and the directors report plenty of money on hand to pay for the work, despite the fact that this is a republican administration.

In the case of Ransom B. Thomas against James L. Wells, to compel the defendant to transfer certain real estate situated in San Miguel county to the plaintiff, judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff. The causes leading up to the suit were, that Thomas had engaged Wells to act as agent for him in the purchase of land, giving him $100 with which to buy the land. Everything was lovely until after the purchase had been made, when it was discovered that Wells had the deed made out in his name, and refused to turn the land over, until this decision of the court compelled him to do so.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

John H. Bell has taken a position as driver for Grant Riverburg.

Repairs are being made to the walls of the old San Miguel church.

The case of scarlet fever that was reported at the home of J. E. Lacombe, turned out to be scarletina.

The probate court has approved the final report of Rufus J. Palen as administrator of the estate of William L. Jones, deceased.

The hearing of Jose Telles, who is being held in the county jail for the murder of a man named Pena at Kennedy on last Sunday, will not be held until the return of the court from Taos.

A new departure for Santa Fe has been made by the Fischer Drug company in fitting up the soda fountain so as to serve hot drinks of all kinds. Waters are served with the drinks and it is being liberally patronized.

Santa Fe lodge, Knights of Pythias, last evening closed a successful and prosperous year. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Chancellor commander, J. S. Candelario; vice commander, George Dietzel; prelate, Fred Siegner; master of work, A. P. Hill; keeper of records and seal, John K. Stauffer; master of finance, R. H. Bowler; master of exchequer, Evaristo Lucero; master at arms, Louis Ulbricht; inside guard, John Didier; outside guard, John L. Zimmerman; trustee, Evaristo Lucero.

Favorite Family Remedy.

Frequently accidents occur in the household, which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for the use in such cases, Ballard's Snow Liniment has for many years been the constant family remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy.—B. Ruppe.

At a late hour Tuesday night an expressman at the Wells Fargo office threw open the south door and was surprised when he was confronted by a man standing in the door facing him. The man immediately turned and ran as fast as his legs would carry him toward the yard. At the time the expressman was frightened and the mysterious action of the man caused him to report the matter to the police who were on the outlook for the strange man.

Ballard's Horsehound Syrup.

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, druggist Shullsburg, Wisconsin, writes May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horsehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle, they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it; 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy.—B. Ruppe.

George W. Dunn, superintendent of bridges and buildings for the middle division of the Chicago & Alton, left Springfield, Ill., for Sacramento, Cal., to become assistant resident engineer of the Southern Pacific road, headquarters in Sacramento.

Foils a Deadly Attack.

"My wife was so ill that good physicians were unable to help her," writes M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., "but was completely cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills." They work wonders in stomach and liver troubles. Cure constipation, sick headache. 25c at all druggists.

Passenger brakeman Dolman is laying off suffering from an abscess of the hip.

PROBATE COURT.

Proceedings of the Session Held at Court House the Other Day.

SEVERAL ESTATES SETTLED.

Regular proceedings of probate court of Bernalillo county, held at Albuquerque, December 1, 1902.

Present: Hon. Esquilpula Baca, probate judge; T. S. Hubbell, sheriff; J. A. Summers, clerk. Proceedings of previous meeting read and approved.

Now comes R. V. Garcia and presents a petition to be appointed a guardian of the estate of Vicente de la Cruz, deceased, to be filed a bond of $50, which bond was also presented and approved.

The report of the appraisers in the estate of H. C. Leeds, deceased, amounting to $3,688.13 was presented and approved.

In the matter of the estate of Santiago Gonzalez, deceased, now comes Mariano Gonzalez, administrator, and files his final report, and thereupon it is ordered that publication be made according to law; that approval of said final report be made if no objections are made at the January term of said court.

In the matter of the estate of H. C. Leeds, deceased, Ben Bothe, administrator for the estate, presented a petition, asking that the court grant him permission to sell all the household goods and personal property of deceased stored in house owned by estate, and that moneys so derived could be used in payment of debts due and owing by the estate. The petition further states that this recommendation does not include jewelry, but simply the other listed personal property.

Upon the reading of the foregoing petition and after hearing counsel for the administrator, the court ordered that said administrator be and is authorized to sell said personal property listed, except jewelry, and give report of doings in the premises.

In the matter of the estate of Quilrena Padilla, deceased, the court appointed Estanislado Padilla and Nepomacino Padilla as administrators of said estate and further ordered that said administrators give bond in the sum of $500. It is further ordered by the court that said administrators perform no duty relating to said estate until after said bond is approved and filed.

In the matter of the estate of Antonio Sancho, deceased, the court discharged the former administrators, Charles F. Hunt and Amado C. de Bena, on account of their failure to comply with petition of heirs and furnish a report of estate. The court further acted in the matter of said estate by appointing Nicolas Ortega as administrator of said estate in the place of former administrators and that he should file bond as required by law in the sum of $3,000, the estate consisting only of a pending Indian depredation claim. Nicolas Ortega presented said bond of $3,000 and it was approved. Francisco Apodaca y Molina and Rafael Apodaca y Molina acting as sureties.

In the matter of the guardianship of Willie G. Neher, Carrie J. Neher, Lola Neher and George M. Neher, minors, Max Ehrlich, attorney for Mrs. Anna Zirkut, presented a petition to the court asking that Geo. K. Neher, guardian of said children, be ordered to give a new bond in the matter of said estate, as Ferdinand Lowenthal, one of the bondsmen, had left the territory. The granted petition ordered said Geo. K. Neher to file new bond in the sum of $5,000.

In the matter of the estate of Juana Chavez de Armijo the court released J. B. Armijo as administrator de bonis non and appointed in his stead one Jacobo Yrisarri, he furnishing bond in the sum of $20,000, furnishing M. W. Flournoy and Andres Romero as sureties.

The will and testament of Minnie Toefel, deceased, was opened and read in open court. The court decided, after hearing witnesses, that the will be approved. Attorney J. H. Stingle, counsel for Henry F. Kaefer, husband of deceased, prayed an appeal from the said judgment, appealing said will to the district court, which was granted. Prudencio Garcia was appointed administrator of the estate of Avelina Vigil de Barros and furnished approved bond in the sum of $300.

Prudencio Garcia was appointed guardian of Pedro Archibueque and Felipe Archibueque and of their estate, and furnished approved bond in the sum of $300.

In the matter of the estate of Pablo Garcia de Mirabel, deceased, Epimenio A. Miera, administrator, made final report of final settlement of said estate all debts having been settled, the court approved said report and discharged said administrator from further liability.

Frank H. Strong was appointed administrator in the estate of Edward C. Keath, deceased, he filing an approved bond in the sum of $370.

Frank H. Strong was appointed administrator in the estate of John A. Lagge, deceased, and filed an approved bond in the sum of $240.

The last will and testament of Andrew Smith, probated in Los Angeles, Cal., was admitted to the court of Bernalillo county, New Mexico.

Adjourned Regular Term. Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 2, 1902.

Present: Hon. Esquilpula Baca, probate judge; T. S. Hubbell, sheriff; J. A. Summers, clerk.

The last will and testament of Jose

Baca y Barela, deceased, was admitted and approved.

The matter of probating the last will and testament of Perclena C. de Baca de M. was postponed until the next regular meeting of court.

T. C. Montoya, attorney for Francisco Padilla y Arias, presented a petition asking a citation upon Jose Padilla y Arias, administrator of the estate of Jose Manuel Padilla, deceased, requiring the said Jose Padilla y Arias to make report of all his doing as such administrator to the court on or before the next January term, which petition was granted.

Eugenio Hurtado, administrator of the estate of Vicente Hurtado, deceased, made final report of said estate, which report was approved and the administrator and his bondsmen were discharged.

John W. Akers, administrator of the estate of Pantoleon Miera, deceased, presented his final report on said estate, which was approved, and together with his bondsmen he was discharged.

In the matter of the estate of Chas. W. Lewis, the court decre